Work to Elect Andrew Layden Committeeman

Volunteer Organization Plans Campaign to Win Ward Committeeman Fight

Andrew J. Layden, an undertaker at 6843 Racine Ave., will be elected ward committeeman of the Democratic party in the Thirty-second ward, is the prophecy of a host of enthusiastic workers who have organized to carry on his campaign for victory in the election of April 13.

Andrew J. Layden

Mr. Layden has lived in the ward for over ten years and by his well known good nature and readiness and ability to do a good turn for one in need he has built up for himself a powerful following of good friends who are ready and willing now to get out and help him win. He is just the right man for this office and when elected can be depended upon to give a square deal to all.

Miss Edith Simonton of 7728 S. Ada St. left Auburn Highlands on Tuesday, March 9th, and was married on Wednesday, March 10th, in Akron, Ohio, to Mr. Guy Hibbs of Virginia. We all wish Edith loads of good luck.

May you bake biscuits, Edith,
May you bake buns,
And may all your troubles
Be little ones.
—Your old playmates.

Celebrates Her Tenth Birthday

Miss Isabel Copeland of 8519 S. Morgan St. celebrated her tenth birthday Saturday afternoon, March 13th, from 2:30 until 6 p. m. by entertaining about twenty-four of her friends, assisted by her parents and brother. Among the guests present were her Sunday school teacher, Mrs. Campbell, and later Rev. T. F. Campbell of the Seventh Presbyterian church. The afternoon was spent in games, violin and piano music, recitations, and later refreshments served in the dining room. The hostess received several very nice presents.

The guests upon leaving announced a very enjoyable time.

On Tuesday evening, March 9th, the Aldeen S. S. Club held a meeting in the form of a "St. Patrick's party" at the home of Miss Marie Tobin, 7940 Union Ave. Refreshments were served and each member enjoyed a pleasant evening.

A fine stock of new goods just received. Suitable for wedding and birthday gifts. Our stock is complete. David C. Nelson, Jeweler and optician, 7816 Halsted St. The store with the Big Clock.

Oglesby Parent-Teachers Association will meet next Wednesday, March 17, at 2:30 p. m. in the assembly hall. An open discussion on plans for a proposed new high school in West Auburn will be the attraction. We trust every mother will be present to help boost. The school children will also render the grading as they progress in the musical studies.

HOME FOR SICK ON SOUTH SIDE

Auburn Park Hospital in Fund Raising Campaign for Modern Structure

In the past year public spirit and pressure, and the spirit of service brought out through the war, has caused our citizens to think of their hospital service. In the past month we have heard of hospitals contemplated for the North Side and for the West Side, and only now the South Side is awakening to the fact that their hospital service is a minus quantity, and propose to build a democratic, non-sectarian institution, the corner stone of which will be inscribed by the fundamental thought on which all our public institutions rest. By the thought which makes our federal, state and municipal government the greatest on earth, "of the people, for the people, and by the people."

President Garfield has said that "if things do not turn up, go and turn them up." This is exactly what the residents of the South Side from 63rd St. to Morgan Park and Blue Island south, and from Hyde Park west to the west boundary of the city intend to do, through a fund-raising campaign, with Charles S. Deneen as honorary chairman, Hon. Benjamin S. Wilson as chairman, and Fred Herendeen as managing director of the campaign committee of the Auburn Park Hospital Association.

The new structure will be built amid the beautiful surroundings of Auburn Park at 78th Place and Eggleston Ave., which gives it an accessibility unsurpassed, being within walking distance of city traction, interurban and regular stopping stations of twelve of the principal trunk line railroads entering Chicago.

There will be accommodations for 150 beds; this is only 10 per cent of the number of beds needed in this district. The operating rooms will be entirely separated from the main building, at almost grade level, which makes it possible to properly take care of the many emergency cases in this district.

Postle & Fischer, architects and engineers, will prepare the plans. The building will be in the Spanish Renaissance style of architecture, which allows a free, honest expression of the plan.

The entire structure, floors, walls, etc., even the ornamental parts will be cast reinforced concrete, with a brush hammered surface. The roof is to be of red tile. It is the idea to make a "home for the sick" rather than a "hospital." There will be large public balconies and sun parlors; many of the rooms will have private balconies on which beds and wheel chairs can be rolled directly from the rooms. The surgical, medical and mechanical equipment will be second to none.

Show How City Can Discipline Profiteers

Forgotten Laws Cited as Basis of Pressure in Restricting Rent Increases

Efforts to secure the co-operation of the city administration in restricting every landlord or real estate agent found to be exacting exorbitant rents will be made today by Ald. Robert J. Mulcahy, chairman of the council committee on rent profiteering.

"There are dozens of city ordinances on building laws, fire protection, boiler construction and operation, garbage disposal, and health rules, of which only the most important are enforced," said the alderman last night. "If the chief of every city department co-operates with the committee we can make most of the profiteering landlords cry for mercy. We can find enough violations of the many ordinances to keep a landlord paying fines and correcting building faults until he will be glad to let up on the tenants."

Schools to Aid Organization

Every school house in the city will be used to organize tenants and further their interests against profiteers if the invitation of the board of education is accepted. The board has made public a communication urging the people to make use of the buildings in their campaign for reasonable rents.

A circular letter instructing principals to throw open the doors of the 300 school buildings in Chicago for indignation meetings was sent out last night by Dudley Grant Hays, director of school extension.

600 Families for 175 Houses

Six hundred Chicago families are clamoring for an opportunity to purchase the 175 six-room houses now under course of construction between 87th and 89th Sts. and State St. and Indiana Ave. The buildings are being put up by the Chicago Housing Association, and will be sold for $4,000 each, actual cost.

The houses, which are being made of brick, stucco, and hollow tile, are to be ready for occupancy by June 1. Thirty-five are already finished and 100 foundations have been laid. Business lots will be sold for $1,200, according to James F. Basinger, general manager of the association.

Retail Pressers Raise Prices

At a business meeting of the South Side Retail Tailors and Cleaners held February 25th figures were brought forth to show that scarcity of skilled help in this line and the high wages paid made it necessary to raise the charges for pressing in order to meet the expenses of doing business. To that end the standard prices for pressing will be as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Lady's suit or dress | $1.25 |
| Lady's overcoat | 1.25 |
| Lady's jacket or skirt | .75 |
| Gent's suit | 1.00 |
| Gent's coat | .65 |
| Gent's pants | .45 |
| Gent's overcoat | 1.00 |

Miss Gertrude Morgan with a group of girls from the Ethel Morgan School of Dancing appeared last week in a motion picture entitled "The Heritage of Eve," which will be released very soon.

Roughing It.

Robert and his father were stranded one night out in a country district. Their car had broken down and they were obliged to stay all night in a humble little home. Everything was strange to Robert, who was strictly a city child. When he returned home I heard him tell his little neighbor friend: "Say, it was great! We slept on a feather bed and washed in their dishpan on the back porch."

Best Fruits of Romance.

A speaker was taken aback during a Sunday school session. He had been commenting on the blessings of matrimony, and just to see whether or not the class was really paying attention, asked one girl what she considered to be the best fruits of romance. The girl pondered a moment and then answered: "I should say the wedding date and the bridal pair."

Where the Grocer Was.

Doris' mother was in the habit of ordering her bread at Smith's grocery. One day while entertaining callers they heard Doris in the next room talking through her toy telephone, asking Central for Smith's grocery, when she called: "Mother, Mr. Smith isn't at home." "Where do you suppose he is?" replied the mother. Doris answered: "Why, he's up in heaven getting our daily bread."

As Nature Arranges Them.

If you want to color beautifully, color as best pleases you at quiet times, not so as to catch the eye, nor to look as if it was clever or difficult to color in that way, but so that the color may be pleasant to you when you are happy and thoughtful. Look much at the morning and the evening sky, and much at simple flowers—dog-rose, wood hyacinth, violets, poppies, thistles, heather and such-like—as nature arranges them in the woods and fields.—Ruskin.

Glory of a Nation.

The true glory of a nation is an intelligent, honest, industrious people. The civilization of a people depends on their individual character, and a constitution which is not an outgrowth of this character is not worth the parchment on which it is written. You look in vain in the past for a single instance where the people have preserved their liberties after their individual character was lost.—E. P. Whipple.

Some Romance Needed.

If life has never led you down the paths of romance, go in search of it. Find it in books—lose yourself in romantic plays. For, you need romance. Let it lift you out of the workaday world and refresh you.

AUBURN PARK TABERNACLE

79th St. and Lowe Ave.
E. Burk, Pastor — Tel. Stewart 968

March 28th to April 4th, 1920—Annual convention of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, Western District. Daily meetings at 2 p. m., culminating in an evening meeting at 8 p. m. Sundays, 11 a. m., 3 p. m., 7:30 p. m.

Prominent and able men will speak and bring messages of most vital interest. Among these will be Paul Rader, Rev. E. J. Richards, R. R. Brown, W. McCarrell. Also several foreign missionaries from the various missionary fields. Special music, choir and instrumental.

All are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Greeks Prize Rugs.

Rug making is as old as Greece itself, but it was never made a commercial item, and it was rare indeed that a weaver could be persuaded to part with his rug. Greek rugs are of two kinds, the heavy ones used in winter and the light ones used at all times. In the beginning the designs were of the simplest, but later the Greeks borrowed floral designs from the Persians, which loan was amply repaid with the development of Grecian art. Venetian rugs are also very rare.

Straws in the Spring Winds

No one has been able to figure out just why it is that women take to millinery that anticipates spring—and no one can doubt that they do wear it. With charming audacity a few straw hats courageously make their appearance along with January thaws in the coldest sections of the country and in the South they enter, to remain. It is the tourist's millinery—the resort hats probably—that entice even the stay-at-homes into discarding their midwinter headwear and donning something that has a promise of spring in it.

Spring millinery is a survival of the fittest among the many and diverse styles that appear at the winter resorts, with the addition of models in which variations in the use of materials appear. Already the seal of approval is set on the hats that appear in the group pictured above—hats of the simpler sort, having, with one exception, soft outlines. All of them, but the wide-brimmed model, may be placed in the class of street hats and this one is to be included in the list of "pastime hats"—those glorified sport hats of gay and beautiful colors and fine materials. This particular example is made of alternating rows of narrow faille ribbon and a braid, in light green, with a pin-wheel rosette of the ribbon for adornment. It is faced with white tagal and may be worn with sport clothes or other summer apparel.

In the dark hat, with feather ornament at the side, there is a splendid example of hair-cloth millinery. The band about the crown shows cellophane over white ribbon and the handsome feather ornament seems to have been created for this hat. The soft Breton sailor made of loops of braid and georgette crepe is a lovely hat and undertakes to outshine the plain banded sailor of brilliant straw which is perfectly sure of holding its own.

Many Wraps Are White.

For southern wear many of the wraps being prepared by the specialty shops follow the mode of the old time French cape known as the "visite." This was a quaint, long, narrow affair gathered up about the neck. This model was followed out at one place in white velvet gathered to a band of ermine and lined with pomegranate red crepe de chine. White wraps are, by the way, being exploited much for the Florida resorts. So are the black ones. Both depend for their beauty largely on vivid linings of orange and citron and rose and henna.

Belts Little Used.

The vogue for belts is decidedly on the wane. A belted effect is given, however, by clever cut, and much ingenuity is exercised in this direction.

Paws Here for Reflection.

Said the facetious feller, "The main difference between valuable city property and valuable dogs is that the v. c. p. is sold by the front foot, while the dog is jest charged for all over."

Cattalo a Hybrid.

The cattalo is an animal one parent of which is the buffalo and the other the cow. The hybrids have been raised in considerable numbers on a cattle ranch in the Panhandle of Texas.

Age of Cedars of Lebanon.

Several efforts to calculate the age of the famous cedars of Lebanon now standing have been made by counting the rings in the heart wood of those that have fallen. These estimates, according to Prof. A. Henry of the Royal College of Sciences for Ireland, in an article in Country Life, vary from 2,230 years to 2,600 years, although it may be that they are of slower growth than the specimens tested in other countries. The largest of the cedars is 13 feet in diameter.

Age is an opportunity no less

And as the evening twilight fades away,

SAVORY DISHES.

Often a cupful or two of cold leftover fish will make a most appetizing and nourishing dish.

Savory Fish.—Cut a two-inch cube of salt pork in dice and try out. To three tablespoonfuls of pork fat add three tablespoonfuls of flour, stir until well blended, then pour on gradually one and one-half cupfuls of cold milk. Boil and add one cupful of flaked halibut or haddock, three-fourths of a cupful of potato cubes, which have been cooked, the pork scraps, and the yolks of two eggs. Season and serve hot.

Mock Crab.—Melt four tablespoonfuls of butter, add one-half cupful of flour, one and one-half teaspoonfuls of salt, three-fourths teaspoonful of mustard, one fourth teaspoonful of paprika. When well blended pour gradually while stirring constantly one and one-half cupfuls of scalded milk. Bring to the boiling point and add one can of kornlet, one egg lightly beaten, three teaspoonfuls of Worcestershire sauce. Turn into a buttered dish, cover with a cupful of buttered crumbs and bake until brown.

Head Lettuce With Pears.—A most attractive and appetizing salad is this: Arrange the crisp heart leaves of lettuce on the salad plates and fill each nest with eighths of carefully peeled pears. A few strips of red pepper placed over them as a garnish adds to the appearance, but paprika may be used, sprinkled over the dressing. If French dressing is used, add a bit of onion and a dash of cayenne.

Coffee-Date Pudding.—Soak a box of gelatin in one half cupful of cold coffee. Add a pint of boiling coffee, one-half cupful of sugar and a pinch of salt. Strain and cool. When beginning to thicken add one-half pound of quartered dates and a half cupful of walnut meats. Serve with cream.

Pineapple Custard.—Add a cupful of diced, sugared or preserved, pineapple, to any good recipe for custard and bake as usual.

Bliss on 1920

The solemn bells have tolled again, the old year has departed and from his bier we turn away downcast and heavy hearted for he brought the H. C. L. that left us dazed and dumb somehow a premonition says the worst is yet to come. A lot of high-toned women in the city by the lake have attacked the H. C. L. and the price of rice and cake and they'll haggle with the grocer about the price of cheese but all will wear silk stockings if their legs and ankles freeze. They'll quarrel with the butcher about the price of beef and they'll call the retail merchant a profiteer and thief and each will try her very best to make someone the kind as she swells along the street in a high priced sealskin coat. They'll scold the poor old milkman whose wife and money is short if he wants to raise the price of milk a half a cent a quart and they'll swell with indignation like they had a case of rabies and say with growing ire that he wants to rob the babies. And then to cool their anger to a calm they'll pay and each pay forty cents for a beef steak.

But still we hail the glad New Year and we'll crown him as king and we'll jazz it and his royal throne and dance and sing though what he has in store for us we know not we confess so we'll do the wishful waiting and tender hope and guess. For the candidates for president this year we'll tell will be as thick this month as Polish pals in hell. And we will have a remedy for the turmoil and unrest and each will claim emphatically his remedy is the best and votes will be instructed by the danger of war from Mount Calvary or with the bull the ass with funk. This is the year the Hands have this country in charge for when the old white Lion shows signs of a bad or indifferent shove can choose a bride and call out a crowd and can boldly wow him and rich fools in best trusts by thunder she can sue him. For every maiden in the land of high or low degree what yet be her station in life has a right to have a husband more or two wives as the case may be can safely wish him success. Lonely maiden so right out undaunted in a wail and wish him. But I would run a warning sound. Mr. Husband cool and tame and each day on your quarts sly or very may flush the game. And if you fail to catch a man don't grieve lament or rant for ten to one the chances are you'll be left without. And when the census comes next it's likely to be found there'll be a shortage of the men—not enough to go round. For they have been dying rapidly in numbers that equal from filling up their cuisses with denatured alcohol. For why lets some rail maiden worth ninety dollars per year throw herself away upon some thriftless cad. Why does she tie herself for life to a lazy worthless clam some swerving, smoking shiftless hulk not worth a tinker's dam.

This month is one to be inscribed on fame's historic pages and it will glow in living light through all the coming ages. For on the sixteenth of this month the arid forces score a drought will set in on that day to last forever more! No more the foaming suds will flow down our parched throats and nevermore will whisky straights or brandy get our goats. The high ball will no longer warm the cockles of our heart, and how to mix the rich egg nog will soon be a lost art. The tempting julip with its mint will cheer our souls no more, or cocktails lend their merry charm to banquets as of yore. We'll write in epitaph to which we all will point with pride. On January the sixteenth old Tom and Jerry died. Whatever else may come to pass in all the coming ages, the greatest record ever made on future history's pages will be the one emblazed this month, upon the earth and sky and when it's written it will read. AMERICA IS DRY.—Hillsboro News

Pennilion Singing.

Pennilion singing is quite common in Wales, and peculiar to the principality. It consists of an instrument playing over a tune in strict time and repeating it over and over again while the singer or singers extemporize words to it in rhyme. The impromptu poetry must fit in with the music and is generally of an amusing character. The custom is quite common among the people, and the instrument used is their national instrument, the harp.
